The documentation must be sent exclusively by e-mail to info@quadratodellaradio.it
After the deadline, no documentary integration will be allowed.

The date and time shown on the email application that receives it will prevail. No liability is accepted for non-receipt of applications resulting from third party liability.

4. Evaluation Committee

The graduation theses received will be examined by the committee specifically appointed by the Governing Council of the "Quadrato della Radio" Association.

The Committee is composed of the president of the association, who presides over it, the vice-president of the association, the secretary of the association and three university or industrial experts.

The evaluation committee, after declaring the individual members of the absence of causes of incompatibility and absence of conflict of interest, will select the submitted works by first verifying their eligibility with reference to compliance with the procedures followed in the presentation of the documentation, to the possession of the subjective requirements required and the coherence of the thesis with the theme of the competition.

Theses considered to be irrelevant to the Purpose of the Award will be excluded at the discretion of the evaluation committee.

The evaluation committee will then take care of the analysis of the theses and curricula of the applicants and will make a merit ranking in order to select the best thesis, assigning to each thesis a score ranging from 0 to 100.

Ex equo between two or more theses can be decided.

By 10/05/2019 the evaluation committee will communicate via email to the applicant the eligibility or the no eligibility for participation and in case of eligibility, the score obtained and the position in the ranking

Within the next 72 hours by e-mail, under penalty of forfeiture of any benefits, the accepted applicants will communicate, at info@quadratodellaradio.it, the authorization to publish their name on the site, the title of the thesis, the score assigned by the committee and their position in the merit ranking.

In the case of the winner, the formal acceptance of the prize and the availability to participate in the award ceremony is also required.

In case of non-acceptance of the prize or even of non-availability for participation in the award ceremony, the committee will award the prize to the second in the standings.

The evaluation committee may not award the prize to any of the theses presented.

The judgment of the Committee is final and cannot be appealed

5. Delivery of the Prizes

The awards will be presented to the winners this year with ceremony at the Vetrya company on the occasion of the Association's Conference on May 25th 2019.

The prize consists of a plaque, the badge of the association, the authorization to mention the recognition in every venue, the sending of reference letters to the companies represented in The Association . The presentation of the thesis will take place in the social event of the Association which will be held in Orvieto at the Vetrya headquarters on 05/25/2019

The winning theses, upon authorization of the winners, will then be published on the Quadrato della Radio website.

Participation in the social event and the related conference will be at the expense of the Association.

6. Other information

The association does not assume responsibility for the unavailability of the winners, e-mail errors or in any case attributable to third parties or causes of force majeure.
